AMENDMENT NO. 4
On page 1, delete lines 8 through 17, and on page 2, delete lines 1 through 7, insert the following:
"Art. 305. Divestiture of juvenile court jurisdiction; original criminal court jurisdiction over children
A.(1) * * * *
(2) Thereafter, the child is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the appropriate court exercising criminal jurisdiction for all subsequent procedures, including the review of bail applications, and the court exercising criminal jurisdiction may order that the child be transferred to the appropriate adult facility for detention prior to his trial as an adult if the child has not been transferred pursuant to Article 306.
B.(1) * * * *
(4) If an indictment is returned or a bill of information is filed, the child is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the appropriate court exercising criminal jurisdiction for all subsequent procedures, including the review of bail applications, and the district court may order that the child be transferred to the appropriate adult facility for detention prior to his trial as an adult if the child is not already being detained pursuant to Article 306.

Art. 306. Places of detention; juveniles subject to criminal court jurisdiction

B. (1) If a detention facility for juveniles is not available, he may be held in an adult jail or lockup for identification or processing procedures or while awaiting transportation only as long as necessary to complete these activities for up to six hours, except that in nonmetropolitan areas, he may be held for up to twenty-four hours if all of the following occur:

(a) The child meets the age and offense criteria set out in Article 305.

(b) A continued custody hearing in accordance with Articles 820 and 821 is held within twenty-four hours after his arrest.

(c) There is no acceptable alternative placement to the jail or lockup.

(d) The sheriff or the administrator of the adult jail or lockup has certified to the court that facilities exist for sight and sound separation of the juvenile from adult offenders and that he can be given continuous visual supervision while placed in the jail or lockup.

(2) A child who is seventeen years of age at the time of the commission of an offense enumerated in Article 305 that is also defined as a crime of violence in R.S. 14:2(B) shall be held in an adult jail or lockup pursuant to Paragraph (B)(2)(a) of this Article, shall be released or removed to a juvenile detention facility.

C. If an indictment has not been returned, a bill of information filed, or a continued custody hearing not held within twenty-four hours after his arrest, a child who is held in an adult jail or lockup in a nonmetropolitan area or a child being held pursuant to Paragraph (B)(2) of this Article, shall be released or removed to a juvenile detention facility.

D. (1) If at the conclusion of the continued custody hearing, the court determines that the child meets the age requirements and that there is probable cause that the child has committed one of the offenses enumerated in Article 305, the court shall order him held for trial as an adult for the appropriate court of criminal jurisdiction.

(2)(a) If the child is seventeen years of age and the court determines at the continued custody hearing that there is both probable cause that the child has committed one of the offenses enumerated in Article 305 that is also a crime of violence as defined in R.S. 14:2(B) and that it is in the interest of justice that the child be held in the appropriate adult facility for detention prior to his trial as an adult, then the court shall do one of the following:

(i) A child who is at least two years younger than the rapist
    charged with the commission of the alleged offense but is not otherwise
    subject to the original jurisdiction of a court exercising criminal jurisdiction has committed either one or more of the following crimes:
    (a) Simple burglary.
    (b) Carjacking.

(ii) A child who is at least two years younger than the rapist
    charged with the commission of the alleged offense but is not otherwise
    subject to the original jurisdiction of a court exercising criminal jurisdiction has committed either one or more of the following crimes:
    (a) Simple burglary.
    (b) Carjacking.

(iii) A child who is at least two years younger than the rapist
    charged with the commission of the alleged offense but is not otherwise
    subject to the original jurisdiction of a court exercising criminal jurisdiction has committed either one or more of the following crimes:
    (a) Simple burglary.
    (b) Carjacking.

(b) A child who is seventeen years of age at the time of the commission of the alleged offense but is not otherwise subject to the original jurisdiction of a court exercising criminal
jurisdiction has committed either one or more of the following crimes:

(i) A child who is fourteen years of age or older at the time of the commission of the alleged offense but is not otherwise
subject to the original jurisdiction of a court exercising criminal jurisdiction has committed either one or more of the following crimes:

(ii) A child who is seventeen years of age at the time of the commission of the alleged offense but is not otherwise subject to the original jurisdiction of a court exercising criminal
jurisdiction has committed either one or more of the following crimes:

(i) The age of the child.
(ii) The physical and mental maturity of the child.
(iii) The present mental state of the child, including whether the child presents an imminent risk of harm to himself.
(iv) The nature and course of the alleged offense.
(v) The ability of the available adult and juvenile detention facilities to meet the specific needs of the child and to protect the safety of the public and other detained children.

Art. 857. Transfers for criminal prosecution; authority
A. The court on its own motion or on motion of the district attorney may conduct a hearing to consider whether transfer to an adult court is appropriate. The court's findings shall be based on the following:

(1) The child's prior acts of delinquency, if any, and their impact on the child's present condition.
(2) Whether the child's behavior might be related to physical
    or mental problems.
(3) The best interests of the child.
(4) The availability and suitability of facilities to meet the specific needs of the child and to protect the safety of the public and other detained children.
(5) The child's history of prior delinquent acts.
(6) The age, maturity, both mental and physical, and sophistication of the child.
(7) The nature and seriousness of the alleged offense to the community and whether the protection of the community requires transfer.
(8) Whether the child's behavior might be related to physical
    or mental problems.
Techniques, programs, personnel, and facilities available to the juvenile court which might be competent to deal with the child's particular problems.

(2) If a transfer is granted for an offense enumerated in Article 857(A)(2), the court shall also determine whether the interest of justice is served for the child to be transferred to the appropriate adult facility for detention prior to his trial as an adult. In making this determination, the court shall consider the following:

(a) The age of the child.
(b) The physical and mental maturity of the child.
(c) The present mental state of the child, including whether the child presents an imminent risk of harm to himself.
(d) The nature and circumstances of the alleged offense.
(e) The ability of the available adult and juvenile detention facilities to meet the specific needs of the child and to protect the safety of the public and other detained children.

(g) Any other relevant factors the court deems appropriate.

Art. 864. Places of detention; before and after transfer

B. After the entry of a judgment ordering his transfer pursuant to Article 857(A)(2), the child shall be held in any facility used for the pretrial detention of accused adults and shall apply to the appropriate court of criminal jurisdiction for a preliminary hearing, bail, and for any other rights to which he may be entitled under the Code of Criminal Procedure if the court finds it is in the interest of justice. If the child is held in an adult facility, the provisions of Article 306(D)(2)(b) shall be applicable.
